Death of Stonewall Jackson.

It is again asserted upon what appears to be good authority that Stonewall Jackson, or rather Thomas W. Jackson as is his real name, is dead. He was undoubtedly one of the best generals in the rebel service, and his loss to them will be great.

Glen. Grant's Army.

The actual position of General Grant's forces, in the vicinity of Vicksburg, is a matter of doubt, on account of the conflicting news which has been received.

By reports from Union sources, he is said to have occupied Bridgeport and Raymond, Miss., and vanquished Bowens at Clinton, on Wednesday last. The battle commenced early in the morning and continued till midnight, Bowens falling back on Jackson. The women and children were being removed from the latter place to Meridian, while the men were preparing to hold Jackson at all hazards.

On the contrary the secession rumors say that large forces are on the way from Charleston and Mobile, to prevent the capture of Vicksburg, and annihilate Grant's army, they attacking in front while the force at Vicksburg attacks his rear.

Another report says Grant, being apprised of this state of affairs, is falling back toward the river to wait for reinforcements, and where he can have the assistance of gunboats.

Going to their Friends.

The spectacle of the thirteen male and eleven female rebels, citizens of St. Louis, leaving their homes for the south, on Wednesday last, compelled to do so by the government, must have been suggestive, as well as new. The government is turning over a new leaf. Rebels and their sympathizers in the north must make up their minds to keep still, or go to their friends in Dixie, or the Dry Tortugas if they choose. The policy will not be confined to St. Louis. Wherever there are traitors it will be enforced. The nation cannot live if it does not cast out from its bosom the reptiles who are stinging it to death.

It is stated that another batch will probably leave St. Louis on Saturday, and this will be kept up until the city and state are sifted of their most dangerous rebel elements.

Gen. Hooker at Falmouth.

Notwithstanding all assertions to the contrary, Gen. Hooker and his army still remain at Falmouth in their old camps. Lee's rebel forces are, no doubt, on the opposite bank of the Rappahannock, and the situation in Virginia has not materially changed in the past week.

Vallandigham's Sentence.

The President has changed the sentence of the court martial in Vallandigham's case. Instead of being sent to Tortugas he is to go to south, and remain there during the war. This is a better disposition of him, as confinement at Tortugas would look like imprisonment, and might make a martyr of him, but as it is he is only to sojourn among his "brethren."

Gen. CURTIS' ORDER IN MISSOURI.—The Lebanon (Mo.) Herald, in publishing the recent order of General Curtis, directing the exclusion of all rebel sympathizers from his department, and providing for the prompt punishment of spies, &c., thus admonishes the Missouri rebels:

"The days of leniency, conciliation and forbearance are well nigh passed away. The wrath of a great nation, and of an indignant people, is ready to break upon the heads of the guilty. Noah's flood was a hundred and twenty years gathering, but it came at last, and swept away a guilty and ungodly world."

There seems to be an exodus of contrabands from Missouri. The St. Louis Democrat (republican) says that the slaves "all over the slave states are making themselves scarce in manors by no means agreeable to those having investments in them." If the slaves are thus undergoing a voluntary extradition from the slave states, they must go to the free states, where they will soon be as plenty as blackberries. Stand aside, white trash.—Madison Patriot.

Give the slaves their liberty in the slave states, and the free states of the north will not be troubled by them. This is the most effective way to keep a black population out of the northern states which we can think of.

The limit of one hundred millions dollars fixed by law to temporary deposits at five per cent. in the United States assistant treasuries, was reached on Friday, and no more money can be received by sub treasurers on that account. This will throw still more money into the market, where it is already a drug at five per cent., and the result can but be an increased speculation in stocks. The New York banks received on Monday eight hundred and fifty-eight thousand one hundred dollars in specie from the Government, being six months interest on the deposits of the sub-treasury.

The London correspondent of the New York Times states that 14,000 Irish emigrants left Liverpool for our shores in a single week of April.

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE

From Richmond Direct.

We have had the pleasure of a call from Captain O. Griffith, of the 22d Wisconsin, who arrived here this morning, from Richmond and Libby prison, on the 5th inst. The captain and most of his comrades were captured at Brentwood, near Nashville, by Forrest, on the 25th of March last, and, happily, are now exchanged, and en route—by way of home of course—to rejoin their regiments. The whole party numbered 250 others, among whom were Brigadier Generals Willich and Stoughton, Colonels Utley, Coburn, Baird and Gilbert, the four last named western men—and 225 privates.

Capt. Griffith assures us that no idea can be formed of the excitement in Richmond, on the memorable Saturday and Sunday night. The whole rebel force that had been in the city, having joined Lee, even the prisoners were guarded by citizens, and the captain does not believe that on Sunday and Monday there was a "single rebel soldier in Richmond," and none manning their immediate defenses.

The earthworks between Petersburg and Richmond, and also between Petersburg and City Point are of great strength, but a gun mounted, and not a man to serve it, if there had been.

The aristocracy down in Richmond, from the sublime heights of their dignity, characterized Stoneman's raid as the most "audacious" thing in life—the idea of his coming within two miles of Richmond itself!

The captain thinks it requires a full purse to live in that blessed place, having paid $2 a dozen for eggs, poor brown sugar $1.50 per pound, a small cake of Windsor soap (world eight cents here) $2—costly to be clean there!—and potatoes $1 a dozen.

But one federal soldier was left in Libby prison when this party left, and he, poor fellow, was detained in consequence of certain charges made against him by a letter-writer, for his treatment of a sick spy. It is Captain McKee, from Mount Sterling, Ky., and his fate will probably be chains or Castle Thunder, or worse, if they have anything worse.

We also received confirmation, where none was needed, of the good heart of the army of the Potomac, and its unshaken confidence in its commander.—Chicago Journal.

Gen. Grant on the Mississippi.

The Memphis Bulletin of Thursday last contains details of Gen. Grant's operations below Vicksburg.

Marmaduke's re-arrival at Bloomfield, is believed to cover the operations of foraging parties collecting forage on the Chalk Bluff road. He will not remain there long unmolested.

Reports from Springfield mention the daily arrival of Arkansas refugees, who have escaped through the rebel lines to avoid the conscription.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.

Charleston papers are very silent about the injuries done to Fort Sumter in the late assault by the iron-clads; but a letter from a correspondent on board the Iron-sides to the Baltimore American says that, as soon as the fleet withdrew, staging or scaffolding was erected on the outside of the fort, and, for more than a month past, the rebels have been at work repairing damages, and are still at work. There are large holes in the wall, very distinctly seen.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 14.

The Tribune has direct advices from the army to Tuesday. All reports of movements since Hooker crossed to the north side of the Rappahannock are unfounded.

The army occupies its old camp. The troops are in good spirits, though there is some disappointment among the ranks and file at the retreat, but no demonstration.

Stoneman's raid has been overruled. The Richmond and Fredericksburg road is so little injured that it was repaired in 24 hours. Our losses exceed 17,000 men, while Lee is said to admit a loss of 18,000. Our army still outnumbers that of the rebels.

NY, May 14.

Advices have been received from Puebla via Havana to April 21st. The French were repulsed on the 13th in an attack on the convents St. Augustine, Carmen and Mercede.

On the 14th a battle occurred at Alejico between a part of Comonfort's forces and the French. Both parties claim success, but the chief design of Comonfort to dislodge the French from Alejico was not attained.

Report reached Vera Cruz April 20th, that the French were driven from Fort San Javier and Hill San Juan, to their former position at Amatlanica. The French account disagrees with this, and reports the capture of Carmen on the 19th. A general review of the situation shows little change since the 1st of April. Numerous bands of guerrillas infested the road from Vera Cruz to Orizaba. Expeditions which were sent out to annihilate guerrillas had been unsuccessful. The French in Vera Cruz entertained great fears that a million of dollars, with a large amount of ammunition about to leave for Puebla, would not arrive safely. Comonfort has been reinforced by 7,000 men from the city of Mexico, and Mexican reports express the hope that by overwhelming numbers they will be able to annihilate the French invaders.

A portion of the army of the Mississippi is now up Big Black river. The distance from the mouth of that river to the bridge which spans it, over which the railroad passes connecting Vicksburg with Jackson, is 32 miles, of which only 20 miles is navigable at the present stage of water for gunboats.

TAKEN AT HIS WORD.—Cromwell was thinking of marrying his daughter to a wealthy gentleman of Gloucestershire, when he was led to believe that one of his own chaplains, Mr. Jeremy White, a young man of pleasing manners, was secretly paying his addresses to Lady Frances, who was far from discouraging his attentions. Entering his daughter's room one day, the protector caught White on his knees kissing the lady's hand. "What is the meaning of this?" he demanded. "May it please your highness?" replied White, with great presence of mind, pointing to one of the lady's maids who happened to be in the room. "I have long courted that young gentlewoman, and cannot prevail; I was therefore praying her ladyship to intercede for me." "Why do you refuse the honor Mr. White would do you?" said Cromwell to the young woman. "He is my friend, and I expect you should treat him as such." "If Mr. White intends me that honor," answered the woman, with a very low courtesy, "I shall not be against him." "Sayest thou so my lass?" said Cromwell; "call Goodwin—this business shall be done before I go out of the room." Goodwin, the chaplain, arrived, and White was married on the spot to the young woman.

THE OZAUKE RIOTERS.—One of the Ozaukee rioters, or sympathizers, who, we presume, was indicted at the last term of the circuit court of that county, vents his spleen on Judge Mann in a communication of over a half a column in length to the News for the reason that he, (Judge Mann), had the presumption to discharge his duty, by calling the attention of the grand jury to the late riot at that place. Since the riot, many of the respectable citizens of Ozaukee, have sold out and left, while real estate at that place is below par. The action of the grand jury, has shown that there are still some honest men left, and if such men, as the author of said communication, are taken care of, and properly punished, it will go a great ways in removing the stain from the name of that once peaceful and prosperous place.—West Bend Post.

ROMANCE IN REBELLION.—The New York Sunday Times says the celebrated Mrs. Brinsmade, the "pretty rebel woman," whose imprisonment by Superintendent of Police Kennedy created such a sensation, has terminated her public performances quite romantically. She has married the Dr. Phelps, who was also arrested on suspicion of being a rebel, because of his marked attention to her. What she did with her previous husband, who was in the rebel army, don't distinctly appear.

We also received confirmation, where none was needed, of the good heart of the army of the Potomac, and its unshaken confidence in its commander.—Chicago Journal.

Gen. Grant on the Mississippi.

The Memphis Bulletin of Thursday last contains details of Gen. Grant's operations below Vicksburg. As has been previously stated Gen. Grant, with infantry, artillery and the gunboats, made an attack on the rebel fortifications at Grand Gulf; they were said by the rebels to be impregnable, and it was declared by those who knew the situation below, that the whole federal army under Gen. Grant was in imminent danger.

Immediately after the battle commenced, and the situation of the batteries was fully ascertained, the gun-boats came up, and a more destructive fire was never opened on the rebels before.

An eye-witness of the scene, (a gentleman who has passed through six battles), declares that every broadside of the federal gunboats dismounted guns on the rebel breastworks. The slaughter was terrible, the rebels being at times unable to move their guns. The firing became weaker and weaker, till at last our guns were not replied to. Gen. Grant's forces, who were on the transports, were moved over, and occupied the place which the rebels had declared was impossible to take. Before evacuating, the rebels had spiked most of their guns, some of which are of immense calibre. Gen. Grant, in that engagement, captured 1500 prisoners and a considerable amount of ammunition and other stores.

The rebels went down the Mississippi and were hotly pursued; they fled in confusion, the officers being unable to form them in line of battle till they had fled to their entrenched camp near Bayon Pierre, heretofore called Point Pierre, when they halted; but they were soon compelled to move from that place, the bring of the federal being so destructive that the officer in command gave orders to retreat.

During this engagement the gunboats moved down opposite Berlinsville, and after a few deadly rounds the rebels changed their base, without any serious loss to our forces.

The latest advices from New Carthage state that the rebels were running and Gen. Grant was in hot pursuit. The rebels then moved forward to Port Gibson, capturing a number of prisoners, arms and ammunition.

A portion of the army of the Mississippi is now up Big Black river. The distance from the mouth of that river to the bridge which spans it, over which the railroad passes connecting Vicksburg with Jackson, is 32 miles, of which only 20 miles is navigable at the present stage of water for gun-boats.

If the slaves are thus undergoing a voluntary extradition from the slave states, they must go to the free states, where they will soon be as plenty as blackberries. Stand aside, white trash.—Madison Patriot.

Give the slaves their liberty in the slave states, and the free states of the north will not be troubled by them. This is the most effective way to keep a black population out of the northern states which we can think of.

The limit of one hundred millions dollars fixed by law to temporary deposits at five per cent. in the United States assistant treasurers, was reached on Friday, and no more money can be received by sub-treasurers on that account. This will throw still more money into the market, where it is already a drug at five per cent., and the result can but be an increased speculation in stocks. The New York banks received on Monday eight hundred and fifty-eight thousand one hundred dollars in specie from the Government, being six months' interest on the deposits of the sub-treasury.

REPORTER FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.
BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, May 13.
Special to Chicago Journal.—The dispatch boat "General Lyon" arrived from Yazoo River this afternoon. She left the fleet Saturday evening.

A rumor was in circulation at the time she left that Gen. Grant was in Jackson. Everybody down there was sanguine that Vicksburg will shortly be ours.

The rebels under Ferguson are still in the region of Greenville; they are all mounted and numbered four or five hundred. The Lyon towed the gunboat Dutchess up to Greenville. She left the D. G. Taylor with five hundred and ninety rebel prisoners on board above Greenville and met the steamer Chancellor coming down with a negro regiment on board from Vicksburg.

Captain Breeze is now flag officer of the fleet above Vicksburg.

A returned prisoner from Little Rock says that General Price is in command there, and that he has about four thousand men.

WASHINGTON, May 13.
A telegram received here to-day from Gen. Grant, dated the 6th inst., when his force was on the Big Black river, says nothing whatever of having an engagement on the 6th when, according to a rebel telegram it was alleged that he was repulsed.

ST. LOUIS, May 13.
Special to Chicago Tribune.—The steamer Bella Memphis left here at 5 p. m., carrying about forty male and twenty female rebels southward, to be sent through our lines into Dixie. The families of several accompanied them. The women were in good spirits, but the men were depressed. The single rebels were allowed to carry three hundred dollars each, and the married rebels one thousand each. It is undecided which route into the interior of the confederacy they will take. An immense crowd witnessed their departure. A large number remain here to be shipped next time. About five hundred arrests have been made of known disloyalists in the interior who will all be shipped southward immediately.

General Heron arrived last night and leaves to-morrow morning for Rolla.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.
Charleston papers are very silent about the injuries done to Fort Sumter in the late assault by the iron-clads; but a letter from a correspondent on board the Iron-sides to the Baltimore American says that, as soon as the fleet withdrew, staging or scaffolding was erected on the outside of the fort, and for more than a month past, the rebels have been at work repairing damages, and are still at work. There are large holes in the wall, very distinctly seen.

TO-DAY'S REPORT.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 14.
The Tribune has direct advices from the army to Tuesday. All reports of movements since Hooker crossed to the north side of the Rappahannock are unconfirmed. The army occupies its old camp. The troops are in good spirits, though there is some disappointment among the rank and file at the retreat, but no demonstration.

Stoneman's raid has been overthrown. The Richmond and Fredericksburg road is so little injured that it was repaired in 24 hours. Our losses exceed 17,000 men, while Lee said to admit a loss of 18,000. Our army still outnumbers that of the rebels.

YONKERS, May 14.
Advices have been received from Puebla via Havana to April 21st. The French were repulsed on the 13th in an attack on the convents of St. Augustine, Carmen and Mercede. On the 14th a battle occurred at Alejonia between a part of Comonfort's forces and the French. Both parties claim success, but the chief design of Comonfort to dislodge the French from Alejonia was not attained.

Reports reached Vera Cruz April 20th, that the French were driven from Fort San Javier and Hill San Juan, to their former position at Amalnica. The French army occupies its old camp. The troops are in good spirits, though there is some disappointment among the rank and file at the retreat, but no demonstration.

J. M. BURGESS, Postmaster.

RETURNED.—We understand that Capt. Miles and Lieut. Burgess, of the 22d regiment, have just returned from Richmond, where they have been held since the affair at Brentwood.

IMPROVED HARNESS SNAPS.—Mr. D. W. Lewis of this city has invented an improved snap for harnesses which the harness makers who have tried it pronounce an excellent thing. It avoids the liability of opening, which is a defect in the old ones, and thus ensures the safety of the fastenings made by it. Mr. Lewis will fill orders, and we recommend a trial of his improvement.

COADS.—Dr. Kennedy, we are informed, is a skillful operator, and removes corns without pain as he promises. He is stopping at the Hyatt House, and his medicines and ointment can be found at Curtis' drug store.

NOTICE TO GRUMBLERS.—It is now six months since the French landed at Vera Cruz and they have not yet got possession of Puebla, 200 miles distant. The American forces, less in number than the French, entered that city in just two months and three days, from their landing at Vera Cruz—having in the meantime besieged and taken the castle of San Juan d'Ulloa, fought the terrible battle of Cerro Gordo, and captured the castle and town of Perote, while the French have had to overcome no such obstacles. Let us hear no more romancing about European warriors.

Correspondence of the Gazette.
From Gen. Rosecrans' Army.

SIGNAL CORPS 20th Army Corps, J. M. McNAUL, Tenn., May 9.

Editor's Gazette.—I believe there is no way in which I can better spend a few moments which I have to spare this morning than in writing to you, because I know you are always anxious to hear from this army.

We have been having a few days of cold rainy weather at late, and the Cumberland is once more in boating order. The people of Nashville had almost given up the idea of seeing any more boats before fall, but now a few more will be able to reach there. The weather is very warm and pleasant. The men all feel in the best of spirits and are all anxious to be on the move once more. The officers and men have sent away all their heavy baggage—the men have sent away their large heavy tents, and are all now living in the shelter-tents. These are by far the best tents we can have because they are so easily carried and so handily put up.

The day of grace for the rebels in Nashville has expired and not a few will be sent beyond our lines to seek the company of their brother rebels. The days of rose-water seems to have passed away and the ones of stern war to be here. Well it is high time such were the case.

The men all feel good over the arrest of that arch-traitor Vandalligham, and hope he may be hung.

God grant that we may move ere long is the fervent prayer of every man in the army as far as I know.

If I were to tell you what is going on here now you would think we would soon be on the move, but as my last letter to you was captured I will not say what we are about at the present time. I hope the rebels will at least read that letter and try to be better men. But I will close, and believe me to be Yours truly,

J. M. KIMBALL.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Springfield (Ill.) Journal states that Messrs. Rose, Steele & Co. have contracted to build 350 miles of the great railroad to the Pacific. This division, or rather separate work, lies within the boundaries of Kansas, beyond which the Union Pacific railroad properly commences. Colonel Carter, of St. Louis, has been engaged as consulting engineer. It is intended to have the first forty miles opened the present year. In addition to the grants of land and bonds made by congress, it is stated that the company have also secured by purchase from the Indians over 500,000 acres of valuable lands on the route. These can be readily disposed of for cash, thereby furnishing in part means to extend the road as it progresses.

The whole line through Kansas is to be completed within four years from date.—The rails, spikes, &c., are already purchased, and the work will be pushed on vigorously without cessation.

In addition to the communication with Kansas City, the new company is compelled to build another, reaching Leavenworth, which is already connected with St. Joseph and the east by railway.

They had a heavy snow storm in Otsego county, New York, on the 5th of May.

INDIAN ELECTIONS.—There are many bright spots yet in Indiana. LaPorte, Greenburg, and Delphi elected Union men at their recent charter elections.

A steamer 409 feet long, built for Daniel Drew, which is to run on the Hudson river, and which is said to be the longest steamboat in the world, was launched at New York last Thursday.

FEMALE SPINS.—Mary Jane Green, Margaret Murphy and Jane DeHart, who have been acting as spies for the rebels in Western Virginia, have been arrested and taken to Washington.
